Parents 'n Playdates

Alvin Buckwold Child Development Program

We're here to help.

This is an event for parents and children to come together.

It is an opportunity for parents to form friendships and for children to develop playdates and learn social skills.

This group aims to:

- Offer your child additional opportunities for social interaction
- Help your child explore and address their strengths
- Bring together parents to share their ideas and experiences

Meet new friends and families!

How does the group work?

Parents will be responsible for their own children, while at the same time having an opportunity to socialize with other parents.

We will have volunteers and activities to engage the children.

We will leave it up to you to bring snacks and drinks for your children.

This is a new project for us and we would love to hear from parents about your ideas and suggestions.

Your involvement is welcome and necessary for the success of our program.

Make time in everyday to play!
