Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I clear errors so I can submit my form?
   The error messages are displayed in red at the top & bottom of the application page after you click “Submit” and beside each field that has an error. Review the User Guide section that applies for more detail.

2. Why is the Submit button disabled?
   You haven’t agreed to the “I certify...” statement. Read the “I certify” statement and click on the box to show your agreement to this statement. Once you have agreed to this statement, the Submit button will be enabled.

3. How do I know you received my application?
   When you click “Submit” and you have cleared your error messages (if any), you will receive a confirmation notification. This confirms that we have received your application. Make a note of these details in this message for your records.

4. When I submit my application I get a general error message. Now what?
   Re-submit your form and ensure you do not enter more than 10 characters in the How many hours are you interested in working per week field. We are working on the next version of the form, which will include a better error message if this field is in error.

5. I’ve fixed all my application errors and followed the instructions but I can’t get the application to submit. Now what?
   Please contact 306.655.3999 and your call will be redirected to the appropriate department.
