

Adult Outreach Services

A program that focuses on building bridges between people and services.

Outreach addiction counsellors engage individuals by:

- Meeting and working with individuals in their community
- Education and referrals on the services available with Mental Health & Addiction Services, and other community resources
- Reducing barriers and increasing access to services

Outreach addiction counsellors provide support to individuals who may present with the following:

- Substance abuse/addiction and gambling concerns
- Lower social-economic status
- Mental health concerns
- Multi-generational issues
- Lack of family/community support
