

HIP ASPIRATION

PREPARATION

There is no preparation for this procedure.

PROCEDURE

An orthopedic surgeon usually performs this test. Fluid is removed from the hip joint when there is suspected infection in a person with a hip replacement. X-ray dye may be injected into the joint capsule to help locate the correct space. The removed fluid is sent to the lab for testing.

Time to perform: 30 minutes