

JOINT ASPIRATIONS

PREPARATION

No preparation is required for this procedure.

PROCEDURE

An orthopedic surgeon usually performs this test. Fluid is removed from the joint when there is suspected infection. X-ray dye may be injected into the joint capsule to help locate the correct space. The removed fluid is sent to the lab for testing.

Time to perform: 30 minutes