

SIALOGRAM

PREPARATION

There is no preparation for this test.

PROCEDURE

A Sialogram is an x-ray examination of the salivary glands to check for blockages, stones and lumps in the cheeks. The x-ray dye is injected into the opening of the duct using a small tube.

Time to perform: 30 – 60 minutes